

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development,
Miami Dade College Wolfson Campus, and Mission of Peace invite you to

“Faith- and Community-Based Organizations Stopping Foreclosure and Predatory Lending”

What: FREE workshop for Faith- and Community-based organizations dedicated to:

- Assisting People with
 - Budgeting and personal credit fixing
 - Avoiding predatory lending
 - Avoiding or fixing foreclosure on your home
- Learning of HUD programs for faith- and community-based organizations
- Learning about FHA products for homeownership
- And other important topics to improve your clients’ quality of life

- Who should attend: All Faith- and Community-based organizations, including staff, board members, clergy and lay people who want to learn about improving their communities quality of life and enhancing homeownership opportunities

When: September 20 & 21, 2007 - 8:30 AM – 4:30 PM

Where: Miami Dade College – Wolfson Campus
300 NE Second Ave, Chapman Conference Room, # 3210
Miami, FL 33132-2297

Directions: http://www.mdc.edu/campus_finder/pages/wolfson.asp

The City of Miami Parking Authority will charge a special $5-all-day parking fee to attendees who show a parking pass provided at the workshop; parking garage # 3, 190 NE 3rd Street, Miami, FL 33132.

The workshop is FREE. Meals are on your own.

Limited space. Register now online

For additional information contact:

Adoniram.A.Vargas@hud.gov

(305) 536-5678, Ext. 2271